para. 14. A condition of mutual distrust currently exists between Erich WENGER and Fritz MICHEL although they earlier had teamed up to dislodge Dr. Walter STRAUSS to Abt V. This condition has reached such proportions that MICHEL has had his secretary transferred out of his office because she has a close social relationship with WENGER's family.

file 9112 Remarks by the Hamburg LfV officer Christian STABENOW, concerning the present deplorable status of the personal conflict between CAVATA officers Fritz MICHEL and Erich WENGER, the latter of whom according to STABENOW is planning to quit CAVATA, probably to be replaced by Hans Joachim PIETSCH 9720 Eric WENGER was recently promoted from TOA III to TOA II. WENGER's wife, who worked in a BfV Aussonstelle, quit her job with the BfV after her husband's promotion. However, she has once again accepted employment and is now the secretary to the chief of the advertising department of the Deutsche Zeitung. The Deutsche Zeitung has, in the past, been primarily an economic paper appearing weekly in Stuttgart, however, it is now to appear as a daily in Cologne.

Pg. 2, para 14 MISCHE expressed disgust at the present custom of employing totally incompetent people, often merely because they had close relatives in CAVATA who could facilitate their employment. As an example of this MISCHE cited the employment on the Hauskapelle of the husband of WENGER's secretary.

(fnu) WILHELM (believed identical with Otto WILHELM, born 7 March 1921 in Dortmund), the employment of GERKEN's old war-time buddies at GERKEN's instigation, and the employment of WENGER's wife as a secretary for the Hauskapelle.
